CITY AT PEACE TAKES ON NEW BOARD MEMBER
Local Video Production Company Takes Interest In Community Youth

City at Peace is a non-profit organization that assists teenagers in creating a safe, healthy, peaceful life and community. The ultimate goal of City at Peace is to develop the next generation of engaged community leaders, using the performing arts as a vehicle (www.cpnational.org).

Randy Davis, of Episode XI Studios, LLC, has been named the newest board member of the City at Peace Charlotte branch, concentrating on marketing. His goal is to increase awareness and participation in the City at Peace mission. "I have a 16 year old son, so I understand the need for cross-cultural understanding, youth leadership, integrity, and excellence in our youth", Davis said.

Episode XI Studios, LLC is a marketing company focusing on video production, event planning and corporate photography. The company believes in going well beyond a camera and a tripod, by using camera cranes and dollies. The end result isn't a video production, but a Hollywood production...and all for the small to mid-sized companies.
