FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

VIDEO SHOWS 25-HOUR HABITAT BUILD IN 90 SECONDS
Episode XI (11) Studios Create Time-Lapse Video For 25th Anniversary

Full-service video production company, Episode XI Studios, LLC, located in Charlotte, NC teams up with Habitat for Humanity of Charlotte, to showcase a 25-hour home build, with the volunteer group from Bank of America (BoA). Founded as a Christian Ministry, Habitat for Humanity of Charlotte works in partnership with God and people from all walks of life to develop community with people in need by building and renovating homes, so that people can live and grow into all that God intended.

The home build began at 6am, with 30 or more BofA volunteers moving walls into place, securing them to the slab, and connecting the top plate. By 4pm, the roof was on and the installation of the siding had just begun...then. Shortly after 4:30pm, the video shows storm clouds moving in and within moments the skies opening up and threatening to delay the 7am completion goal.

As the volunteers huddle beneath the home's front porch, there was nothing to do but wait. Off and on the rain fell throughout the night, but through Habitat for Humanities perseverance and the BofA's determination, the home was ready for dedication on time.

Episode XI Studios, LLC is located in Charlotte, NC, and believes in going well beyond a camera and a tripod, by using a cinema approach of camera cranes and dollies. The end result isn't a video production, but a Hollywood-style production...and all for the small to mid-sized companies.
